Newberry honors herself in electing Editor E. H. Aull to the House of Representatives. As a rule, editors make good legislators, and Editor Aull will be sure to do his whole duty to the people, not only of Newberry, but of the whole State.—Abbeville Press and Banner, 17th.

Delayed Trains.

Nearly all the trains were delayed yesterday, owing to an accident or accidents beyond Columbia. The morning train on the Southern that is due at 7.40 reached here about three hours late, and the up passenger on the C. N. & L. was about two hours late.

A Parson's Noble Act.

"I want all the world to know," writes Rev. O. J. Budlong, of Ashaway, R. I., "what a thoroughly good and reliable medicine I found in Electric Bitters. They cured me of jaundice and liver troubles that had caused me great suffering for many years. For a genuine, all-around cure, they excel anything I ever saw." Electric Bitters are the surplus of all for their wonderful work in Liver, Kidney and Stomach troubles. Don't fail to try them. Only 50 cts. Satisfaction is guaranteed by all druggists.

C.; Misses Lois Goggans, Marguerite Gibson, Leona Epting, Lurline Evans, Talula Langford, Caro Aull, Estelle Aull, Gertrude Reeder and Mary C. Burton, to Winthrop College, Rock Hill, and Miss Eunice Halfacre, to Due West Female College.

Like marvelous cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and Grip prove its matchless merit for all Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all drug stores.

A Hug-Gotten Stalk.

Mr. John Scott while out in the country prospecting one day last week brought to town from his "lower plantation" a huge stalk of cotton, which he called the Jackson limless. The stalk was nine and a half feet in length. Mr. Scott says the cotton was highly fertilized with Vegetable Compost, but in planting was put too close together and did not mature as it should. However, it was a curiosity, and Mr. Scott is satisfied that he has a bonanza in this section of the country with Jackson limless cotton and the sugar beet.

"Got His Money's Worth."

So Hub Evans has been pinched for "assaulting" Editor Blackman. He will probably be found guilty and fined as much as $25. In the meantime a deep silence pervades the editorial columns of The News on dispensary "rottenness." Hub probably got the worth of his money.—Spartanburg Journal, 17th.

FINED FIVE DOLLARS.

Tried in Greenville for His Attack Upon Mr. J. K. Blackman on a Charge of Assault and Battery.

Greenville, Sept. 16.—It has been understood that Mr. H. H. Evans of Newberry would be indicted for assault and battery with intent to kill, in consequence of his attack upon Mr. J. K. Blackman, editor of The Daily News, which occurred in this city a month or two ago.

A warrant for his arrest was issued last week by Magistrate L. K. Clyde and placed in the hands of Sheriff J. D. Gilreath, who notified Mr. Evans that he had the warrant, through Mr. O. K. Mauldin, who had been retained by Mr. Evans to act in his behalf.

Mr. Mauldin notified his client by wire, and Mr. Evans came to Greenville yesterday afternoon, when it was requested by him that the case be heard before Magistrate F. B. McBee, to which objection was made on the other side. Under the law the nearest magistrate to the city has jurisdiction in such an event, which takes the case before Magistrate John L. Green, of Butler township.

Mr. Evans this afternoon appeared before Magistrate Green and was fined $5. He was represented by Messrs. Oscar L. Mauldin of Greenville and O. L. Schumpert of Newberry. The prosecution was represented by Mr. J. J. McSwain of Greenville.—Special to The State.

The First Attraction.

The "Lonely Widow" which will be presented at the opera house next Tuesday night, is one of the funniest farce comedies on the road, and is replete with newness from start to finish.

Unlike many farce comedies the "Lonely Widow" has a strong well defined plot and human interest that holds the attention of the audience. The company presents not only a high class comedy bill, but is full of choruses and medleys from the rising of the curtain to its fall. If you wish a good seat secure it early. Regular prices. Seats will be on sale at Mayes' Book Store.

A Popular Fad.

It is a popular fad to wear photo buttons. We learn that the "button man" has engaged a window at W. S. Melton's bicycle repair shop in order to button up this town. Mr. Wilson's work was first introduced here in July when nearly every merchant on Main street was snapped off before they understood what was taking place. He makes a specialty of small scarf pins, and anticipates a big run in this work here. The price is a trifle and it must require a great number to get any money out of the business at the rate of 6 for 25c. We expect to see Newberry flooded with buttons.

A Night School.

Through the kindness and thoughtfulness of the management of the Newberry Cotton Mill a night school has been inaugurated on the hill and is being taught nightly by a Mr. Miller. This is a capital idea, for which the management is to be congratulated. The school is being largely attended and much good will be accomplished by it. We are glad to see it.

It would not be a bad idea for the experiment to be made over in town—many persons might take advantage of such an opportunity.

A Card.

Editor Herald and News: I herewith tender to the people of Newberry county my sincere thanks for another instance of their confidence, notwithstanding the load I had to carry in my earnest and strenuous opposition to child-labor-legislation. To those who opposed me, as well as to those who favored me, I tender my thanks for hospitality offered and courtesies received. Jno. F. Banks.

Called Home.

Thomas David Bradburn, younger son of Mrs. C. Bradburn, aged eleven years, two months and twenty-four days, was called home by the Heavenly Father, July 23d, 1902.

The constant ministry of loving hands through long days of illness could not keep him here when his place was ready for him.

To us the death of the young always seems strange, but when one is called home, to whom thus early in life the spiritual world is so real, whose desire is rather to go than remain, the explanation given in 1 Kings 14:13 of the death of the young son of Israel's king seems peculiarly fitting: "Because in him there is found some good things toward the Lord God of Israel."

This is the source of comfort to the hearts that grieve, as they remember the sweet words of our Saviour, "Of such is the kingdom of heaven."

We do not fully understand, but to our hearts so full of sorrow we can say: "With patient mind thy course of duty run."

God nothing does, nor suffers to be done But thou wouldst do thyself, if thou couldst see

The end of all He does, as well as He."

BACHMAN CHAPEL LETTER.

All the News Around Bachman Chapel and Union Academy Interestingly Told by T. J. W.

One of the most common and surest events of life—is death; and is the most saddest thing that can enter into our minds. We have felt called upon to write the obituary of many departed souls, and our heart is always filled with sadness in every instance of this kind, and this morning, as I pick up my pen to chronicle the death of two of our departed sisters in Christ, that same cloud of sadness has possession of my mind.

After a severe attack of fever combined with a stomach trouble which lasted for the past three months, Mrs. Francis Wise, wife of Mr. P. L. Wise, passed from a mortal to an immortal state of existence on the morning of the 18th instant. Aged 39 years, 5 months and 27 days. Mrs. Wise leaves a husband, two sisters, a stepmother, two half sisters and two half brothers, with many other relatives to mourn her departure. She was a member of Bachman Chapel Church, but according to her request, her body was laid to rest in Colony graveyard the day following her death; the funeral and burial services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. P. H. E. Derrick. I have known the deceased all my life. She was a woman who lived a moderate and peaceful life. I don't remember of ever hearing her say any harm of any one. She told her pastor not long before she died that she would like to get well and enjoy health if it were God's will, but if not His will, she was ready to go. Oh, what a blessed consolation to hear such expressions from a dying soul, and oh, to God that we all could say with old St. Paul, "To Live is Christ and to die is Gain," which was the words of the text; that can be found in Philippians, 1st and 21st.

News has just reached us that Mrs. Polly Epting, wife of Mr. J. J. Epting, died at her home near Pomaria yesterday evening at 4.30 o'clock, and her remains will be buried at her church, St. Paul's, today at 10.30 a. m. If God is willing we will attend the funeral and give further information of Mrs. Epting's life and death.

We will have to exclude other news from this letter which will appear in Tuesday's issue if not providentially hindered. T. J. W.

Property News.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Moseley spent some time in the Northern markets making selections for their fall and winter trade.

Mr. Joe Hartman is now with Schumpert & Lester.

Mrs. A. H. Kohn and children, Hal and little Nellie returned to Columbia last Monday after spending some time with relatives and friends in this community.

Mrs. S. W. Calmes has just returned from market whither she went to select her fall millinery.

Mr. W. E. Moseley was at the University of Virginia last session, and while there he won a scholarship. Of course Willie feels good over his success and we rejoice with him. It is also a source of pleasure to learn that Mr. Cecil Wyche, son of Dr. C. T. Wyche, has won the Citadel scholarship for this county. He finished the course in the school here last June, making a good record. Added to a strong native ability, he has the tenacity to hold on. We confidently expect to hear something more from him.

Mrs. L. T. (Boineist) Brown, of Spencer, N. C., is on a visit to friends and relatives in this community.

Mr. J. C. Counts has had some experience recently with a mink. In one night he killed 52 chickens. There is only a slight grain of comfort in the fact that Mr. Counts caught the fellow that did the mischief.

Miss Myra Mower is visiting the Misses Moseley.

School days have come again, (not the saddest of the year) and many of our homes are connected with various institutions by the tenderest chords.

During this week Mr. Geo. Brown has left for Due West, Miss Bessie Counts, for Rock Hill, Misses Jessie Moseley, Lillian Wise, and Annie Mae Bedenbaugh, for Charlotte.

Rev. Abercrombie's family has moved and now live up-stairs in the Wheat House on Main street.

Miss Gertrude Simpson, who has so long done faithful work here in the school, goes to Newberry to begin work there at the beginning of the session of the Newberry schools.

Call accepted.

Rev. J. J. Long, of Hayne, S. C., has accepted the call recently extended him by the Newberry pastorate, composed of Beth Eden, Colony and Mayer Memorial churches. This is the second call he has received from this pastorate within the past four months, and thus his present charge, Bethlehem and St. Matthew's congregations, was constrained to accept his resignation through their joint council at a meeting held on Tuesday last. Mr. Long's ministry in the Bethlehem pastorate has been very successful, and the people there regret to part with him. His resignation will take effect November 1st, at which time he will enter upon his new field.—Lutheran Visitor.
